

Training abroad!

Spain & Estonia

Katrium is a Finnish-owned company that specializes in outsourcing, research and consulting services internationally. Katrium's offices are located in Tallinn, Estonia and Fuengirola, Spain.

Our services are targeted to the businesses that operate locally and are seeking internationalization or outsourcing of their business operations. Our main markets are in Finland, Russia and Baltic countries, but Katrium's services cover the whole of Europe.

We offer training positions in our offices in Estonia and Spain. Work tasks are versatile and challenging. Fulfilling work tasks requires the ability to work independently. During the training period you will receive valuable work experience. Training also gives you the possibility to further employment in our company.
